Forever, Always (II)

My husband, my son

Are you still mourning me?

Where are you now?

While I'm here, pleading that you wouldn't see?

I'm nothing but a slave

Nothing could ever be my own

Oh, how much to I crave,

To stop being alone?

"I love you, mom"

I heard the warrior say.

Our worlds froze,

His in aghast, mine in joy

As we fell toward what was for me - eternal freedom,

And for him - the lose of his evil kingdom

I felt overwhelming pride

Redeeming the many nights where for them - I cried

"I love you too, Marco. Forever, Always."
